Oct. 26th—30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Pharisee in today’s gospel is filled with self-praise whereas the tax collector is filled with humility, “O God, be merciful to me a sinner.” This parable gives us an important teaching about honesty in prayer. When praying we need to place ourselves genuinely and humbly before God. Don’t spend time making comparisons to how others pray. Rather than praising ourselves for the good we think we have done, or just the opposite - thinking ourselves unworthy of God’s mercy and love, may our prayer be like that of the tax collector, approaching God with no pretense and with sincere pleas from our hearts. It is good for us to recall the words of the psalmist, “The Lord hears the cry of the poor.”
